LOS ANGELES, CA, Jan 14 (Marketwire) --

CompuMed, Inc. (PINKSHEETS: CMPD) (www.compumed.net) -- a leader in telemedicine services for patient diagnosis and management -- announced a change in management. Effective December 31, 2012, Maurizio Vecchione resigned from his position as CEO in order to become Vice President of Global Good at Intellectual Ventures. Global Good is a collaborative effort between Intellectual Ventures and Bill Gates to tackle humanity's problems through new inventions and technologies, with a focus on the developing world. Mr. Vecchione will remain a member of CompuMed's Board of Directors.

Also effective December 31, 2012, W. Scott Rombach, in addition to his responsibilities as President, assumed the CEO role. "Scott's expertise in driving global enterprise transactions and developing strategic partnerships is a tremendous asset to CompuMed. He has a unique skill set and is the right individual to take the company to the next level," said Maurizio Vecchione.

Mr. Rombach has served on the Board of Directors of CompuMed since 2011. He was appointed President in October of 2012.

As a sales executive with PeopleSoft, Inc., Mr. Rombach specialized in executing large software and services deals. He brings a deep understanding of how customers can best leverage enterprise technology solutions to cut costs and drive revenue. Prior to its acquisition by Oracle, PeopleSoft was the global leader in providing enterprise human resources and payroll software solutions. Mr. Rombach also has experience in a start-up environment. With Armstrong Laing, he drove sales that helped this UK based company to become one of the market leaders in Activity Based Management (ABM) software solutions. Mr. Rombach has an M.B.A. from Georgia State University and a B.A. in Marketing from Michigan State University.

"We are very grateful for the contributions Maurizio has made to the company and are glad that he will continue to serve on the board. The board feels that the company is in good hands with Scott Rombach as its leader," said Mr. Mark Stolper, CompuMed's Chairman.
