

CompuMed Management Change

LOS ANGELES, CA--(June 10, 2013) - CompuMed, Inc. (OTCBB: CMPD) (www.compumed.net)

-- a leader in telemedicine services for patient diagnosis and management -- announced a change in management.

Effective May 31, 2013, Phuong "Foo" Dang resigned as the Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary of CompuMed. Also on May 31, 2013, Laura Carroll was appointed the company's CFO and Corporate Secretary. Ms. Carroll has served as CompuMed's Controller since April of this year and will maintain this position as well.

Said Mr. Mark Stolper, CompuMed's Chairman, "On behalf of the board I would like to thank Foo for her years of service to the company. We wish her the best in her future endeavors."

At Moviso, Ms. Carroll served as the SVP of Operations and Accounting during which she was responsible for all accounting, finance and budget functions. Moviso was the largest U.S. provider of ringtones, graphics and mobile content prior to being sold to InfoSpace.

While at The Disney Stores, Ms. Carroll held manager and director level financial, accounting and operations positions. She was responsible for payments and controls of $1.5B annually as the company grew from 100 stores in the U.S. to over 600 stores in 11 countries.

Ms. Carroll has a B.S. in Accounting from Indiana University's Kelly School of Business. She started her career as an Audit Supervisor with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Most recently, Ms. Carroll has provided executive consulting services in the areas of accounting and finance to a number of relatively small healthcare companies.

"Laura brings deep experience in both finance and operations and will be a strong addition to the management team. She will continue the company's cost cutting efforts and be responsible for streamlining accounting and finance processes. I am extremely pleased that Laura is taking an expanded role within CompuMed," said Mr. W. Scott Rombach, CompuMed's President and CEO.
